ABOUT DVS

WHAT IS THE DIGITAL VILLAINY SUMMIT?

DVS (pronounced "devious") is an adults-only yearly online furry convention with a silly, supervillain bent. Each year we gather artists, entertainers, writers, streamers, and all kinds of other colorful community members to raise money for charity. To date, DVS has raised over $58k CAD.

YOU'RE FUNDRAISING FOR CHARITY?

Yes! Our chosen charity for 2023 is akt, an organization based in England, created in 1989 to serve LGBTQ+ people between the ages of 16 to 25 who are homeless or otherwise living in a hostile environment. They provide support in getting people into safe homes and employment, education or training, in a welcoming and open environment that celebrates LGBTQ+ identities. Find out more about their history and the services they provide at https://www.akt.org.uk/what-we-do!

in support of

akt

HOW DO I TAKE PART IN DVS?

We stream on Picarto, an artist-focused livestreaming service with easy-to-use multistreaming abilities and a permissive attitude towards erotica, making it perfect for our purposes. We've chosen Picarto because most other services (Twitch and YouTube in particular) have very strict policies prohibiting discussion or visual depictions of erotic subjects, and have done little to help minority creators who experience frequent hate raids and other forms of harassment.

Additionally, a DVS Discord server will operate for the duration of the event. You can watch and comment on goings-on either way. Check our website (d-v-s.online) for up-to-the-minute details!

so you're not supervillains in real life?

Nope, it's just stylish geeky fun, for a good cause. Like cosplay, or renaissance faires, or drag. It's a sex thing for more than a few of our members, too – capes and tights can be just as kinky as leather or latex.

if you're trying to make the world better,
why do you call yourselves supervillains?
that doesn't sound very villainous to me...

You know what? Okay. Let's get real for a moment.

Think about all the people in the world who put a lot of effort into convincing you they're "good" people. Politicians, religious leaders, celebrities, cops. How many of them really care, and how many of them are just covering their asses while reinforcing our society's deeply screwed up status quo? Meanwhile, queers have existed since our ancestors climbed down from the trees, and yet somehow in 2023 we still have to fight for the barest scraps of human dignity from the powers that be. We're encouraged to assimilate, to conform to what popular culture defines as "safe" representation, and to keep any deviance hidden from sight. Those of us without the luxury of passing as "normal" are treated as freaks and pariahs by our governments, our workplaces and our peers. A resurgent authoritarian nationalist movement – what used to be widely recognized as fascism, before right-wingers got better at working the refs, and co-opting or destroying noncompliant media – is increasingly unafraid to advocate the genocide of "undesirables." How is any of this good? How is any of this worth fighting for?

Is it any wonder that, in the midst of unprecedented global chaos, hundreds of queer people have found catharsis and community in imagining what it'd be like, if they had the power to push back and build something better? Or that, given the chance to actually make a real, tangible difference for an otherwise painfully underserved LGBTQ2S community, they'd take it in a heartbeat?

It's all just for fun, though. Just a little bit of kinky, campy Saturday morning cartoon fun. Right?

Right...?

ABOUT DVS

meet our new mascots, the devious duo

With the con receiving a new name, we also wanted to introduce the new face of evildoing. Two new faces, to be exact: the perfidious powerhouse Devi, and sinister schemer Davis. Designed by DVS co-founder and Korps architect Kraken, these two will be helping us spread the wicked word of DVS...even if it is for a good cause.

CONSENT POLICY

The Digital Villainy Summit recognizes that there is no universal consensus on what proper consent practices are or should be. That said, this consent policy represents how DVS staff expects attendees to conduct themselves in their interactions and may be used to help determine whether an actionable consent incident has occurred.

DVS is an online streaming convention with its origins in kink communities, and which includes programming that specifically discusses kink and erotica. Therefore, DVS values informed, affirmative consent as the gold standard for consensual activity. Attendees should be courteous and considerate when interacting with others, whether in the DVS Picarto chat, the DVS Discord server, or in interactive virtual spaces related to DVS such as a VRChat server.

1// .UNWANTED FLIRTING AND SEXUAL COMMENTS

Please respect the personal boundaries of staff, panelists and other attendees and refrain from flirting/catcalling/making sexually implicit or explicit comments or propositions to others. In virtual spaces such as VRChat, please refrain from touching or otherwise invading the personal space of other avatars without their explicit permission. If a specific party has made it clear that they are receptive to your comments, move your interaction to a private method of communication, such as direct messages, to prevent the disruption of public spaces.

2// .roleplay

While we permit and encourage character-building and roleplay as a component of the cape kink scene DVS grew out of, please refrain from sexual roleplay in public convention spaces. Again, we will request you move any erotic roleplay interactions to a private method of communication, such as direct messages, to prevent the disruption of public spaces.

3// .EROTIC CONTENT

The DVS Discord server will include a set of channels marked "NSFW" in their channel titles for the sharing and discussing of explicit content. Please do not post sexually explicit content such as photos, illustrations, 3D renders, animations or live-action videos outside of these "NSFW"-labeled channels. This also extends to audio files such as hypnosis inductions, as well as VR avatars with explicit genitalia.

4//.content boundaries

Please respect the boundaries of others when inside designated erotic content spaces; if someone posts a nude selfie in #nsfw-selfies, for example, other attendees do NOT have open license to hit on them, engage in erotic roleplay with them, criticize their appearance, or save their selfie to distribute elsewhere. If the poster indicates they are receptive to explicit sexual comments or proposals, please relegate them to a private method of communication, such as direct messages.

5//.personal boundaries

Whether discussing erotic content or negotiating potential sexual interactions, it's crucial that attendees vocalize what they are and aren't looking to talk about. Phrases like "I'm really interested in ___", "Can I talk about ___?", or "I personally don't like ___" aren't just solid ways to establish personal boundaries, they can also serve as good conversation inroads. If an attendee has an issue with a topic other people in the server are discussing, they can request the discussion be moved to a private conversation; however, DVS attracts a wide range of attendees with a plethora of different interests, so a general "live and let live" mentality is encouraged except in egregious cases.

6//.hard nos

DVS will not permit ANY discussion or posted content pertaining to pedophilia, bestiality or sexual assault. This is a zero tolerance policy — no exceptions, no excuses.

What is a

CONSENT INCIDENT?

A consent incident is any situation in which someone feels that something significant happened to them without their consent. A consent incident can happen during play or in general interactions. It is the Digital Villainy Summit's policy to take all reasonable measures to support anyone involved in a consent incident and to resolve the incident as fairly, discreetly, and efficiently as possible.

If you feel like you or someone you know has been involved in a consent violation during DVS, please contact a moderator through a private method of communication such as a direct message, or by sending an email to moderators at mods@d-v-s.online. The DVS Moderation Staff will then gather more information on the incident from all associated parties and take appropriate measures. Violators may face a temporary or permanent ban in DVS Picarto chat channels, a temporary or permanent ban from DVS Discord server participation, and in severe cases a ban from all future DVS events.

How to get away from the cops (virtually)! Paula (🎮 PaulaBraydi), fastest ass on Twitch, will demonstrate that if you don't have rocket-powered legs, that's okay - a set of wheels will do just fine. She'll build a new gateway car, test it, then take it for a spin around town. Brands don't matter here, but go ahead and rave in chat about your Beemers, Mercs, Maccles, Lambos, whatever you like!

Blitzgamer (🐦 blitzgamer210) streams the 2014 video game adaptation of 2011 cooperative card game Sentinels of the Multiverse, featuring a unique, lavishly-illustrated Silver Age-style superpowered setting.

Ahh, Becky,
you do amazing
work!

The whole
suit looks good
as new!

Although, I
get the 'daring pulp
hero' is your whole
shtick--

I, uh...

Can't have the
great Carrie Peril
going out in tattered gear, can we.

--but maybe
we should get you
something a little more modern.

Something showing a bit more skin, let out
your slutty side a bit.

You wanna show off
those stunts of yours, right? Imagine how many more eyes will be on you,
flaunting that bod.

Y-yeah, I guess... that sounds good...

Great! Let's get you set up with a private design session!

Just write down your
real name and address,
any allergies, weaknesses,
friends or family...
